

Dear,

We did it! We couldn't have won the primary last week without your help. When the votes were counted on May 3rd, we received 60% of the vote and won all six districts.

I'm writing to say thank you. You helped us get our message to District 5 voters.

And it worked!

Now we face our most formidable challenge: Victoria Spartz.

It will be a tough battle, but one we can win.

Our message and commitment to bettering the lives of all is the reason for our success.

Throughout this campaign, it's become clear to me that the people of Indiana want a leader who will fight for equality for ALL Hoosiers, not just some of them.

I am ready to stand against Victoria Spartz in November and to find economical solutions for our neighborhoods, such as investing in small businesses, increasing wages, and lowering daily expenses.

I hope you'll stand with me.

Thanks in advance for your continued support.
